

THE MUNICIPALITY OF WOODSTOCK, VERMONT

PROCESS FOR INVESTIGATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF ETHICAL VIOLATIONS

1. Reporting Violations

- Who Can Report: Any employee, official, or member of the public.
- How to Report:
 - Submit a complaint using the Woodstock Ethics Complaint Form via email to the Chief of Staff.
 - Alternatively, use the VT State Municipal Ethics Commission Complaint Form, available here: FORM HERE. The Vermont State Ethics Commission is a non-partisan, independent State agency empowered to accept, review, refer, and track complaints related to ethical conduct in State and municipal government.
 - If there are alleged violations of the Vermont Municipal Code of Ethics. 3 V.S.A. § 1223(b), the complaint should be made to the VT State Municipal Ethics Commission using the form above.

For complaints reported to the Municipality of Woodstock, this is the process:

2. Initial Review

- Who Reviews: Chief of Staff
- What Happens:
 - Check if the complaint is valid and under the policy's scope.
 - Decide if an investigation is needed or dismiss the case with an explanation.
 - The Chief of Staff will seek advice if needed from the State Municipal Ethics Commission in making these determinations.

3. Investigation

- Who Investigates: A neutral investigator or team.
- Steps:
 - Collect evidence and talk to involved parties.
 - Keep everything confidential as much as possible.
 - Wrap up within 30 days, if possible.

4. Findings and Actions

- What Happens Next:
 - Investigator presents findings to the Town Selectboard or Village Trustee Chair or Town Manager depending on who has filed a complaint. A complaint against an employee is investigated by the Town Manager and a complaint against an official is investigated by the Town Selectboard or Village Trustee Chair.
 - The Chair or Town Manager decides on actions, which could include warnings, training, suspension, or other penalties.
- Notification: Inform the accused and complainant about the decision.

5. Appeals

- How to Appeal:
 - The accused can appeal within 10 days,
 - Either the Chair or Town Manager reviews the case and makes the final decision.

6. Recordkeeping

- Save all reports and decisions securely while following confidentiality and public record laws.
